Pakistani President's views towards APHC

396. SHRI YASHWANT SINHA:
SHRI RAJKUMAR DHOOT:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the President of Pakistan has once again stated that the All Party Hurriyat Conference (APHC) is the only true representative of the people of Jammu and Kashmir;

(b) if so, Government's reaction thereto;

(c) what is the position of democratically elected Government in Jammu and Kashmir in the eyes of Pakistan and other countries;

(d) whether Pakistan also feels that the APHC should be directly involved in the discussions between India and Pakistan on the Jammu and Kashmir issue; and

(e) if so, Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI E. AHAMMED): (a) to (e) During the visit of the Hurriyat leaders to POK and Pakistan in June 2005, President Musharraf had stated that the Hurriyat are the true representatives of the people of Jammu and Kashmir.

In a democracy like India, the true representatives of Jammu and Kashmir are those elected by the people of Jammu and Kashmir through the democratic electoral process. The question, therefore, of accepting any group of people claiming unfounded representative character does not arise.

Pakistan has asked on several occasions inclusion of the so-called true representatives of the Kashmiri people in the dialogue process. The dialogue process, including the deliberations on the issue of Jammu and Kashmir is a bilateral dialogue between the two Governments. The Government of India represents the people of India, including the people of Jammu and Kashmir. Government has, repeatedly, also declared its willingness to talk to anyone, including those who lack representative character, as long as they are ready to give up the path of violence.
